Order the story.

- ☐ The man believed the lion and helped him out of the hole. “Now, I´m going to eat you !” said the lion. “Help me! Help me!” yelled the man. Just then, a clever hare was hopping by.
- ☐ Just then the lion realized his mistake. The man thanked the hare while the lion roared angrily from his hole. The man and the clever hare walked happily away.
- ☐ “Please help me to get out of this hole!” said the lion. The man said, “But I´m afraid of you.” The lion said, “Don´t worry, I won´t eat you!”
- ☐ The man explained the situation to the clever hare. The hare thought quickly before he spoke.
- ☐ Next the hare spoke to the lion. “You were in that deep hole before, right?” The lion growled, “Yes, I was.” Then, without thinking, the lion jumped back into the hole.
- ☐ A man was walking in the forest on a beautiful, sunny day. He saw a lion in a deep hole.
- ☐ “Before you eat me, let´s ask that hare´s opinión,” said the terrified man. “OK, but ask quickly!” growled the lion.
- ☐ First, the clever hare said, “Let me understand this clearly.” The hare looked at the man and said, “You were standing over there before, right?” “Yes,” said the man, and he went and stood beside the hole.
