WRITER

➢ Match the following elements with their definitions.

Length	A summary should include important details from the original piece.
Main Idea	Summaries should state the most important point first so the reader knows what the summary explains.
Organization	Because the summary is shorter than the original piece of writing, the writer has to be careful not to use too many extra words.
Supporting Details	A summary should explain the main ideas of an original piece of writing.