Match the definition to the word

The growing of plants and livestock is called

A plant or plant product that is grown and harvested a person who owns or manages a farm is a

A man-made device made of connected parts to do a task is a Money that is borrowed and payed back later is