PERSONAL PRONOUNS

Drag the pronouns into the correct place in the text. The first sentences stay the same.

They | They | They | He | He | She | She

They | They | They | He | He | She | She

Bob and Clara are my neighbours.

Bob and Clara are very friendly.

Bob and Clara are talking.

Bob is an old man.

Bob is wearing glasses.

Clara is a teacher.

Clara works in a school.

Tina and Tom are friends.

Tina and Tom are classmates.

Tina and Tom go to the 3rd grade.

Tina and Tom have balloons.

Tina has a green balloon and

Tom has a blue balloon.

Tina is 8 and Tom is 9 years old.

Drag the pronouns into the correct place in the text. The first sentences stay the same.

She | She | She | He | He | It | It

This is my mum.

My mum is 35 years old.

My mum is a secretary.

My mum works in an office.

Jim has got a dog.

Jim is my cousin.

Jim is a student.

The dog is big and brown.

The dog is friendly.