FUTURE: WILL / WON'T

1. Affirmative form

FUTURE: AFFIRMATIVE FORM
	WILL	Acción (verbo)	Complemento
I	will	live	in Australia	I will = I'll
You	will	walk	in the park.	You'll
He	will	run	tomorrow	He'll
She	will	catch	the ball	She'll
It	will	watch	TV	It'll
They	will	make	a sandwich	They'll
We	will	read	a magazine	We'll

Contraction:
pronoun + will

Correct: They'll
Incorrect: Susan and Mary'll

Examples: correct → She'll travel next month. ✓
Incorrect → Susan'll travel next month. ✗

A) Complete the sentences using future in affirmative form.

Examples:

a) I'll go to visit my family next weekend. (go)
b) My mother will drive the car. (drive)

1. Mary and Susan _____ a sandwich tomorrow. (make)
2. They _____ next weekend. (study)
3. Betty _____ in the park tomorrow morning. (walk)
4. We _____ a book. (read)
5. He _____ a ball. (catch)

2. Negative form

FUTURE: NEGATIVE FORM
	WILL	not	Acción (verbo)	Complemento
I	will	not	live	in Australia	will not live =I won't live (I won't live in Australia).
You	will	not	walk	in the park.
He	will	not	run	tomorrow	He won't
She	will	not	catch	the ball	She won't
It	will	not	watch	TV	It won't
They	will	not	make	a sandwich	They won't
We	will	not	read	a magazine	We won't

Contracción: will + not = won't

B) Complete the sentences using future in negative form.

Examples:

a) I won't eat junk food. (eat)

b) Simon won't take the bus. (take)

1. William and Joe _____ late. (sleep)
2. The boys _____ a hard time. (have)
3. Betty _____ late. (be)
4. My brother and I _____ too many soda.s (drink)
5. He _____ sports at the school. (play)