You received a message from your friend, Hisham.

Hi .....,

As you know, I don't enjoy being in the sun and I'm not interested in outdoor activities. Next week, my cousin and brother plan to go to Pulau Pangkor for a camping cum hiking trip. My parents insist that I join them as it will be good opportunity for me to be outdoors rather than be stuck to my computer games. What should I do?

Your parents want you to be healthy and not be so house-bound tied down by computer games.
However, I feel you should give it a try.
I'm sure there are sheds or shacks around.
I would cheer you on.
A camping trip can be enjoyable.
You should go for the camp!
Sorry to hear about the dilemma you are in – you don't want to disappoint your parents and a camping trip is definitely not to your taste.
Recently, I joined a group of friends on a camping trip and it was really great to be in the open with nature.
Hiking can be done in the morning and I'm sure your co-campers would also favour doing it in the cool crisp air and not hike under the hot sun.
You need not stay out under the sun the whole time.
