

Match the proverbs with the correct meaning.

Empty vessels make the most noise

A hungry man is an angry man

Where there's a will there's a way

A man is as old as he feels

First come, first served

Discretion is the better part of valor

A friend in need is a friend indeed

A burnt child dreads fire

A person's age is immaterial - it is only when he thinks and feels that he is ageing that he actually becomes old.

A person who does not get what he wants or needs is a frustrated person and will be easily provoked to rage.

The first in line will be attended to first.

A friend who helps when one is in trouble is a real friend.

When a person really wants to do something, he will find a way of doing it.

To choose between two equally bad alternatives in a serious dilemma.

Avoiding a dangerous or unpleasant situation is sometimes the most sensible thing to do.

Those people who have a little knowledge usually talk the most and make the greatest fuss.
