WRITING Skill-Building | Sharing Information CLB 3-4

A short story about COVID-19

Instructions: Write a short story about COVID-19. Here is the question you should consider:

After almost a year of COVID-19, what are your feelings about it now?

> Cases continue to rise in Canada

> Cases continue to rise in Saskatchewan

> Highest number of cases in SK are in Saskatoon

> New restrictions - indoor private gatherings are limited to 5 people
- indoor public gatherings are limited to 30 people (with 2m distance)

> Do you always follow these guidelines?

> Are you getting tired of these guidelines?

> Do you know people who don't follow the guidelines? (2m distance, mask-wearing)

> Do you know someone who has/had COVID-19?

Remember...the teacher is looking for:

- a story in paragraph format
- correct use of capital letters
- correct end punctuation (periods, question marks, exclamation marks)
- correct verb tenses
- a subject and verb in every sentence
- CLB 3: Four to five sentences / CLB 4: Six to seven sentences
