

Digestive System

Fill in the blanks using the correct words given below.

small-intestine	anus	saliva	digestion	waste
gullet	stomach	teeth	large-intestine

- a) The process by which food is broken down and absorbed into the blood is called _____.
- b) _____ in the mouth cut and grind food into small pieces.
- c) A digestive juice in mouth, called _____, also breaks down food.
- d) The tongue helps to push the food into the _____.
- e) Digestive juices in the _____ further break down the food into a soupy liquid.
- f) After food passes through the stomach, digestion is then completed in the _____.
- g) Any food that cannot be digested goes to the _____.
- h) The undigested move from the large intestine to the rectum and is stored as _____.
- i) The waste gets passed out through an opening called the _____.