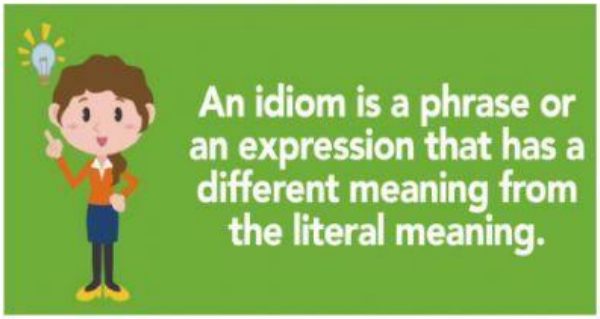
Idioms - Face & body parts-3



A) Let's learn!

idioms	meanings
• to get something off your chest	to tell someone something that has been bothering /worry you for a long time
• to scratch someone's back	to do a favor for someone (and hopefully in return they'll do a favor for you)
• to have a green thumb	to be good at gardening or growing plants
• to pat on the back	appreciation; congratulation
• to toe the line	to behave according to an official rule
• head over heels	deeply in love
• a slip of the tongue	when you say something you didn't mean to say
• to turn a blind eye	to ignore something that you know is not right
• to learn by heart	to memorize
• to let one's hair down	to relax and enjoy oneself

B) Fill in the blanks with the right face/body parts.

1. Finally, the final exam is done. Oh let our _____ down for once!
2. My father can still recite the poems he learned by _____ at school.
3. Management often turn a blind_____ to bullying in the workplace.
4. It was an unfortunate slip of the _____, and he did not intend it that way.
5. Laura fell head over _____ in love with Chris.
6. Television shows these days do not always _____ the line of decency and common sense.
7. Give yourself a pat on the _____ for a job well done.
8. My sister has a green _____, but I kill most plants that I buy
9. you scratch my _____ and I'll scratch yours.
10. I think these meetings would help people get some of their worries off their _____.