Questions 21 – 25

Read the article about these children's favourite classroom games and then answer the questions.

For questions 21 – 25 WRITE A or B.

Tina (9)

We played 'Find it' once. Each group got some postcards with messages and pictures of famous places on. Then, in pairs, we all had to get up and go and look on the computer to find the name of the place and its country. It was great because I worked with Jo, who's really fast at finding things! We won!

Tom (7)

My favourite game is called 'In the Jungle'. We've played it twice in our sports lessons. We are in the jungle with wild animals and the teacher tells us to do different things like jump very quickly over the river or talk to the monkeys. I like it because it's fast and we don't have to sit still. When I'm at home I like finding answers to my questions about jungle animals on the internet.

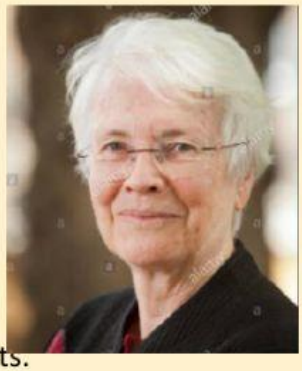
An interview with Elizabeth Laird.



Elizabeth was born in 1943 in Wellington, New Zealand.

She studied languages at Bristol and Edinburg universities and now she is an award-winning author.

We asked her these questions:

Who do you write your books for?

I have written many books for young people about different subjects.

Do you write fiction or non-fiction books?

Some of the books are works of fiction inspired by my journeys to India, Ethiopia and Lebanon. Other books I wrote tell real-life stories. I also wrote some retellings of folktales. So I think my books are fiction and non-fiction.
