SKILLS TEST

READING

Regina Flores talks about her year abroad as an exchange student

The first time I went overseas was last year, when I was fifteen. Because I had never left my country, Brazil, I didn't know much about other places. So my parents sent me to Britain for a year, to live with a family and attend school. It was a great way to learn about a different lifestyle and culture.

The family I stayed with – the Browns – were helpful and kind. They knew I felt a little uncertain and scared because I was far away from my own family in a foreign country. The three children in the family are 15-year-old twins, Charlie and Max, and Holly who is ten.

When I first read about the family, I thought Charlie and Max were brothers because they have boys' names. But during our first video chat I found out that Charlie is a 'she', whose real name is Charlotte! We became best friends. I shared her bedroom and we spent a lot of time talking before bed.

My school I went to in Britain is very different to my school in Brazil. In Brazil, it's much bigger. There are a lot of students and the school is on a lot of land. There are more buildings, but the buildings aren't high. In Britain my classroom was on the second floor and I walked up and down the stairs a lot!

Also, I wore a school uniform for the first time in my life. It felt really strange wearing a jacket and tie at first because I wear jeans to school in Brazil. I soon realised life was easier when I didn't have to think about what to wear every day! But the thing I like best about the uniform is that everyone is equal. In Brazil, young people like to be fashionable at school, but some students don't have trendy clothes and they feel bad.

My last day at school in Britain was sad. I cried when my classmates gave me a present and a card. It was hard to say goodbye! The next day, the Browns took me to the airport, but I didn´t cry because Charlie is coming to stay with me in Brazil next month. She´s going to live with my family and study in my town for a year! Hooray!

Writing

A review

Read a product review of a game controller. Choose the correct words to complete it.

I bought the ZXC game controller last week. My old one was six years old, so I wanted something newer and better.

The 1) best/worst thing about it is that it's comfortable to hold, and you can reach all the controls easily. Another fantastic 2) feature/problem is that it's wireless, so you don't have to connect it to your computer.

The only 3) thing/problem is that some of the buttons don't work well together. If you're holding the direction button down, the option button doesn't always work very quickly. It's OK for some games, but not for driving games, which I love.

4) All in all/All for all, this is a nice controller, but I 5) shouldn´t/wouldn´t recommend it because of the problem with the controls. There are plenty of better controllers available.
