

Do you like my house?

- Describe your house
- Draw a picture of your house
- Describe the things you can do in it.

The form consists of a large rectangular frame with decorative leaf corners. Inside the frame, there is a large empty space for drawing a picture of a house. Below the drawing area, there are six horizontal dotted lines for writing a description of the house and the things that can be done in it.

