Use the idioms to form sentences

1. Bolt from the blue

_____

_____

2. It's better to be safe than sorry

_____

_____

3. Live and learn

_____

_____

4. Kill two birds with one stone

_____

_____

5. Don't cry over spilt milk

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

spilt milk	blue
lived	sorry
kill

The recess bell rang telling everyone it was time for recess. It was a balmy morning and my stomach was rumbling like a monster. I bought a hot bowl of noodles and cup of ice milo. Feeling afraid that my favourite seat would be taken up, I decided to 1._____ two birds with one stone by balancing both the hot bowl of noodles and iced milo. However, I couldn't see very well and like a bolt from the 2. _____, I fell. I realized I slipped on a puddle of water. I was very upset as I had no more pocket money left and I was still very hungry. I realized there was no point crying over 3._____. It is better to be safe than 4._____. I promised myself never to repeat that mistake again.

I 5. _____ and learned.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

SPELLING. 1 BUCK

Only learn the bolded word/phrase

1. Like a bolt from the blue, the rain poured.

2. I put on my seatbelt. It is better to be safe than sorry.

3. Learn from your past mistakes. Live and learn.

4. By shopping at NTUC, we can buy both food and soap, we can kill two birds with one stone.

5. You should have been more careful with your wallet. Don't cry over spilt milk.

LIVEWORKSHEETS