

It is the crocodile. It's reptile and carnivore. Crocodile is oviparous. It is big, brown, black and white.

It lives in tropical region, in rivers, wetlands and lakes in Africa, Asia, the Americas and Australia.

Crocodile has got four short legs, a big body, small eyes, a long tail and sharp teeth. Its body is covered by scales.

It can swim and walk but it can't fly.

A crocodile eats all kinds of reptiles, animals and birds as well as fish. Crocodile is an excellent swimmer; it can stay in the water for up to 7 hour.

The Nile crocodile is the biggest crocodile. Crocodile is longer than alligator. It has the strongest bite of any animal in the world. It is faster in water than in the land.

1) Answer the following questions

A) What animal is it? It is a crocodile

B) How is it?

C) Has it got a short tail?

D) Has it got a big body?

E) What can crocodile do?

F) What does crocodile eat?

G) Where does it live?

2) Adjectives, write S (superlative), C (Comparative)

Biggest	longer	More poisonous
faster	strongest	Most social
better	best	worse

3) True or false

The giraffe is taller than the elephant

The lion is more predator than the

The snail is more nocturnal than the owl

The white shark is the most dangerous in the water

The crocodile isn't the strongest bite in the world