Career of the Year

Fourteen-year-old Ed Bond from London is this year's winner of the Young Career of the Year Award.

When he's not at school. Ed looks after his mother, who is disabled and in a wheelchair. He also looks after his ten-year-old sister. He helps to do the washing and the cooking. 'Ed's great,' says his father. 'I have to go to work at six in the morning, so Ed has to help his mother a lot. He doesn't have to do the housework but he does it anyway. We worry because he doesn't have much free time, but he doesn't complain.' 'I want to help.' says Ed, 'and anyway I don't have to do so much at weekends because my dad's at home.'
