1. Scientists found groups of fossil footprints. What could this discovery show?

A. These animals might have lived in the ocean.

B. These animals might have traveled in groups.

C. These animals might have lived alone.

D. These animals probably had large teeth.

2. Scientists found this fossil shell in a desert. What did this tell them about the Earth's history?

A. This animal used to live in the desert.

B. This animal used to have legs.

C. Water used to be where the desert is now.

D. Mountains used to be where the desert is now.

3. Which animal is extinct?

A.

B.

C.

D.

4. What is a paleontologist?

A. a kind of tree sap

B. a tool used to dig for fossils

C. an animal that only eats plants

D. a scientist who studies fossils

5. Which is a plant fossil?

A.

B.

C.

D.