After reading the story, see if you can discover what pollution is and what causes it.

Is there a difference between smoke and smog and is one better than the other for the environment?

On the world map below label the world's most polluted cities. See if you can discover why they are so polluted.

