Complete the sentences with the correct form of 'borrow' or 'lend'.

1 Can you [ ] me a top for the party tonight?

2 Can I [ ] £10, please? I'll pay you back tomorrow.

3 Jack [ ] some money from his parents to go on holiday last month.

4 I [ ] my calculator to Gina yesterday and she's broken it.

Choose alternatives to replace the underlined words.

souvenirs | department store | half price | shop owner | fraction | gloves | customer | sports gear

1 Everything is 50% cheaper in the sale. _____

2 I'm after some blue things to keep my hands warm. _____

3 Harrods is a famous large shop which sells lots of different things in London.

_____

4 'Is that the person who the shop belongs to?' _____

'No, that's a person who buys things from a shop.' _____

5 I've joined a gym so now I need to get some clothing to do exercise in.

_____

6 Do you ever buy things to remind you of a place when you go on holiday?

_____

7 That electrical shop is closing down. They're selling TVs at a small part of the cost.