Tekst 2

Hi Sonia,
I'm writing to you from a film-making summer school. It's located just outside London, close to a film studio. We actually spend some time working in the studio! It's amazing. My friend had to talk me into going because, at the beginning, I wasn't at all sure if it was a good idea. However, once I'd made up my mind, my parents actually agreed to pay for the whole course, so I didn't need to touch any of my savings.
I'm new to the world of film-making, so I'm doing the course for beginners. We're learning some basic things about how to make a film. I enjoy nearly all of the classes. I'm focusing on the scriptwriting workshops, but most of the other teens here are just attending the acting lessons. It's probably because they get to meet some real-life film stars. I've only been here for four days, but it's been so much fun. I'm definitely coming back next summer!
Let me know how you're spending your summer.
Love,
Mia
