Quiz - Plot Elements

1. What is plot?
   A. A story.
   B. A series of events within a story.
   C. A plan.

2. What is another word for "Exposition"?
   A. Plot start
   B. First part
   C. Introduction

3. What three things are included in the Exposition?
   A. setting, characters, and opening situation
   B. setting, plot, and characters
   C. characters, time, and place

4. What is the setting?
   A. the place where a story takes place.
   B. the time and place a story takes place.
   C. the time the story takes place.

5. Rising Action is...
   A. the events leading up to the climax.
   B. the events leading to the resolution.
   C. all events of the story

6. The Climax is...

A. The most important part of the story.

B. The most exciting part of the story.

C. Where the problem is solved or where we can see how it may be solved.

D. All of the above

7. Falling Action is..

A. the events leading up to the climax.

B. the events leading to the resolution.

C. all events of the story

8. The resolution is...

A. How the problem is solved and the story comes to an end.

B. Where another character is introduced.

C. How the story ends.

9. Another word for "Conflict" is...

A. Solution

B. Fight

C. Problem

10. The "Theme" of the story is...

A. what the story is about.

B. the lesson the author wants to teach us.

C. the song that plays during the opening.