Dear Maria,

Computer camp is better than I daired to hope. When I first got here, I just stared at all the computers. They're everwear! Each day, I get to try new softwar. By the end, my eyes are sore from the glear of the bright screens. I have barrly any time until dinner; thairfore, I must say fairwell. But be prepered for another letter tomorrow!

Your friend,
Sonja
