Name _____ Date _____

Grammar- Types of Verbs

There are three types of verbs:

Action Verbs: doing words such as run, jump, walk

Linking verbs: verbs that connect the subject with additional information. The dog is smelly.

Helping verb include: am, is, are, was, were, should, will, has, have, had, would, could, shall, been

Write the verbs from each sentence in the space provided. Remember in some cases a sentence may have more than one verb.

Example: She has two sisters. (has)

1. She bought a lovely new outfit.
2. I am eleven years old today.
3. They look pretty in their lovely dresses.
4. They have delivered the mail.
5. The fireman is climbing the ladder.
6. This material feels very soft.

7. Some teachers are strict.

8. My mother prepares lunch for us daily.

9. I visited my friend last week Saturday.

10. I have thrown away the garbage.

11. Our school is a very ancient building.

12. We have been driving for two hours.

13. Asha scored the most marks in the test.

14. The cricket coach was absent today.

15. My teacher writes neatly on the chalkboard.

16. The students seem excited.

17. He will be showered with blessings.

18. We could have helped the poor man.

19. The food smells delicious.

20. She studied all day at the library.