CAE- Passive Voice review

A. Turn the following sentences from active into passive, or vice versa.

1. Susan will have redecorated her flat by the end of the month.

2. Which car did the family choose?

3. You must return all books to the library within a week.

4. Lucy is known to have applied for the manager's position.

5. Will all the new students be made to learn a second language?

6. He wasn't allowed to leave.

B. Rewrite the sentence in two different ways:

The police showed the victim a picture of the suspect.

They believe that scientists have found a new planet.

Scientists

It

C. Fill in with one suitable word:

Twenty-four hours after arriving in the country, I ____ told to leave.

D. Put the verb in a suitable form:

He claims (wrongly accuse)_____ of the crime.

E. Rephrase the sentences using the given word:

The theory is that she fell overboard at night and drowned. (FALLEN)

She _____ overboard at night and drowned.

The accused claimed he hit the police officer as a result of provocation. (PROVOKED)

The accused claimed _____ the police officer.

F. Write down the sentences using causative forms.

1. Brian didn't build that shed himself. He/it/build

   e.g. : He had it built.

2. I/ really/ the heating/ fix. Winter is coming soon.

3. Some of the windows are broke. You/ them/ replace.

4. they / the rooms / paint at the moment.

5. "we/ this case/ investigate", the CEO said.

6. Instead of getting a new one, why/ you/ not/ your old one/ fix?

7. She/ her hair/ dye yesterday.