Read and number the sentences in the correct order according to the fairy tale:

_____ A huntsman passing by the house heard the noise, came in and cut open the wolf's belly. Poor girl and her grandma jumped out. The wolf died.

_____ He wore grandma's clothes and slipped into her bed. When Little Red Riding Hood arrived she found the door open.

_____ She left home, entered the woods. Then she met a wolf on her way. The wolf asked her and learned where her grandmother lived.

_____ The wolf told the little girl that it was a good idea to pick some flowers for her grandmother. She agreed and started picking them.

_____ She went in and went to the bedroom, but her grandma looked strange. She asked some questions about her strange appearance.

_____ Little Red Riding Hood's mother asked her to take a basket filled with bread, butter, cake and berries to her sick grandmother.

_____ After some questions the wolf jumped off the bed and ate her whole. Then he went back into the Grandma's bed and fell asleep snoring loudly.

_____ The wolf rushed straight to the grandma's house and entered the house disguising his voice. Then he ate the grandma whole.

What is the name of the story? _____

-WANTED-

Villain's Name: _____

Reward

Clues Found At the Scene of The Crime

Last Seen

Foot Print

THE CRIME

_____

_____