Dopolni z ustreznimi besedami.

EARTHQUAKES

Earthquake is a shaking of the _____. It happens when two plates slide up or _____, or they can move apart. The _____ of an earthquake on the surface is called the epicenter. But the real center can lie even 70 km _____ the ground.

If an earthquake is strong, it can _____ many houses, bridges, dams and other buildings. Sometimes _____ change their course. Earthquakes can trigger landslides or break _____ pipes and power lines, which can _____ fire. They don't kill _____ directly, but many die and even more _____ injured because buildings collapse.

What should we do when the earth _____ shaking? First of all, we _____ panic. If we are indoors, we should _____ under a doorframe or _____ under a table or a chair. We should go away from walls and _____. When the shaking stops, we should go_____. If we are outdoors, we should go away from buildings and _____ trees.

A large earthquake can be followed by many smaller quakes, _____ aftershocks, but they are not so dangerous.