YUNA

Yunalis binti Mat Zara'ai professionally known as Yuna, is a Malaysian singer and songwriter. Yuna's initial exposure came through the viral success of her music uploaded to Myspace, which received over one million plays. She is best known for the collaboration with Usher on her breakout single "Crush" which peaked at number 3 on the US Billboard.

Born and raised in Kedah, she began writing songs at age 14. She soon taught herself to play guitar. By 200fi, while attending law school, she performed for an audience for the first time. She graduated with a Bachelor of Legal Studies degree in Universiti Teknologi MARA in Shah Alam.

Yuna was eventually discovered in the US by the Indie-Pop record label and management company. They flew out to Malaysia to convince her to sign with them and then proceeded to get her a deal with one of the record labels based in New York. She later released her Indie-Pop US debut, 'Decorate'. Yuna is very talented and she possesses a light soprano voice. She would be pursuing her career in the US shortly after her marriage to a Malaysian director, Adam Sinclair.
