Relative clauses – Contact clauses

Decide if you need the relative pronoun or not!

1.Edinburgh is a city	which	we don't know very well.
2.It's a place	which	is famous for its beautiful buildings.
3.Harry is a boy	who	I met in Edinburgh.
4.He showed me a DVD	which	he bought in the Tourist Information Centre.
5.Harry is a person	who	never spends a lot of money on sweets.

Make one sentence out of two. Use a relative pronoun. If you can leave it out, put it in brackets!

1. Andy is a Scot. His grandma was born in Germany.
   Andy is a Scot whose grandma was born in Germany.
2. He often visits friends. Their parents have a small hotel.
   _____
   _____
3. This is a new song by The Blacks. I heard it on the radio.
   _____
   _____
4. The Blacks are two boys from Scotland. They sing together.
   _____
   _____
5. This is our new music teacher. We saw her yesterday.
   _____
   _____
6. Mobile phones are a cool invention. You can use them for many things.
   _____
   _____

Make sentences with contact clauses.

Match the sentence parts. (There are no relative pronouns.)

1. This is the CD	A he uses for climbing.
2. Have you found the torch	B we bought at the baker's?
3. Aysa broke the present	C I got in the music shop.
4. Rob has forgotten the boots	D they take at concerts.
5. Would you like some of the cake	E you lost in the park?
6. My friends always show me the photos	F she bought for her mum's birthday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS