CLASSWORK DEC, 10-2020

PRACTICE 17.28 Supplying Interjection

Read the sentences. Rewrite each se using an appropriate interjection in place of the feeling shown in parentheses. Use a comma or an exclamation mark after each interjection.

EXAMPLE (anger) The stain did not come

ANSWER Darn! The stain did not come out of this shirt.

11. (surprise) I can't believe the president shook my hand.

12. (impatience) We're going to miss the kickoff.

13. (dislike) That coat is the ugliest thing I've ever seen.

14. (pain) I stubbed my toe on the coffee table.

15. (joy) We are all so happy you got the award.

16. (annoyance) Would you kindly stop talking for just one minute?

17. (anger) You know you're not allowed to do that.

18. (relief) I thought the plane would never land.

19. (joy) I'm leaving for vacation tomorrow.

20. (surprise) I thought you'd forgotten our anniversary.