SCIENCE-PART1. EXERCISES 2

1. Label the picture: River – sea – ocean – glacier – aquifer - lake

_____ _____ _____

_____ _____ _____

2. Write: "lake", "sea", "ocean", "aquifer" or "glacier"

- They are very thick masses of ice: _____
- Enormous areas of salt water: _____
- A flowing stream of fresh water: _____
- There are five on Earth: _____
- They flow downhill into seas, lakes and even other like them: _____
- They are smaller than oceans: _____
- When water collects underground, it forms one: _____
- They are usually found on mountains near North and South Poles: _____
- They form part of oceans: _____
- They are all interconnected: _____
- They are large bodies of water, completely surrounded by land: _____
- They can contain fresh water or salt water: _____
- They form when snow accumulates and becomes compact: _____
- They are more or less separated by the continents: _____
- Its water is calm: _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS