Every Sunday, I always accompanied my mom to the city. First, we will stop at a supermarket located on Alamanda street to buy groceries. My mom always buys basic needs like eggs, milk, tea, cooking oil, and chicken.

Then, we went to the bakery on Flamboyan street to purchase some bread and cookies. After that, we always stop at a fruit stall near the post office at Jasmine street to grab cheap fruit from our local farmer.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

1. What's on Alamanda Street?
a. a bakery
b. a fruit stall
c. a supermarket
d, a post office

2. What does "basic" mean in Bahasa Indonesia?
a. Baku
b. Tidak penting
c. Sekunder
d. Tambahan

3. Which of these shops did the author and his mother not visit?
a. Fruit stall
b. Supermarket
c. Bakery
d. Post office

4. Which of these choices has a similiar meaning to the word "near"?
a. far
b. Close by
c. Distant
d. Afar

LIVEWORKSHEETS