Definitions

A song sung by two people

A combination of voices singing together in tune

A collection of songs on a CD

A person who writes music

A musical group

Individual songs on a CD

A recording of a song previously done by another singer or group

The special way someone does something

Familiar songs that everyone likes

People who like a particular singer or group

The words written for a song

Music that is easy to remember

LIVEWORKSHEETS