Indicate if the following are simple, compound, or complex sentences. Pay attention to the clauses and to the coordinators and subordinators.

1. Snow is accumulating fast this winter. simple compound complex
2. Practice is never perfect, and a great deal of frustration invariably accompanies it. simple compound complex
3. Nature is his passion in life, and his colleagues say that he is a skilled naturalist. simple compound complex
4. The two clouds have a common envelope of hydrogen gas that ties them firmly together. simple compound complex
5. Agriculture is a complex industry; its success depends on climatic factors. simple compound complex

LIVEWORKSHEETS