C. Reading Comprehension Practice

Choose the correct answer

1.) Where was the rabbit when he heard the loud noise?
A. inside a cave
B. under a coconut tree
C. near a river
D. on top of a hill

2.) What woke the rabbit from his nap?
A. thundering sound
B. animals making noise
C. falling coconuts
D. a landslide

3.) Why did the rabbit start running?
A. He saw danger approaching.
B. He wanted to play a game with other animals.
C. He was scared of the loud noise.
D. He was searching for food.

4.) How did the other rabbits react when they saw the first rabbit running?
A. They ignored him and continued napping.
B. They followed him without knowing why.
C. They laughed at him for being scared.
D. They shouted at him to stop running.

5.) Who helped the animals realize the truth about the sound?
A. the lion
B. the elephant
C. the rabbit
D. the tiger

6.) How did the lion help the animals?
A. by running away with them
B. by investigating the source of the sound
C. by scaring other animals
D. by ignoring the situation

7.) What was the actual cause of the loud sound?
A. a landslide
B. a thunderstorm
C. falling coconuts
D. animal cries

E SUPPLEMENTARY ACTIVITIES

a. Choose the correct answer - noun or verb

1. A loud thundering (sound, sounded) jolted the rabbit awake.
2. The rabbit's (cry, crying) could be heard throughout the forest.
3. The bird is (chirp, chirping) sweetly in the trees.
4. The flowers (bloom, blossom) beautifully in the garden.
5. The rabbit was settling down contently beneath a coconut tree for his afternoon (nap, napping)
6. The lion's roar (fright, frightened) the animals.
7. The animals (live, life) together in the forest.
8. The fable is an interesting (story, storytelling) that captivates the readers.

LIVEWORKSHEETS