Use these phrasal verbs in the following exercises

call sb back, pay sb back, send sth back go back, give sth back, take sth back

1. Complete the sentences with the correct phrasal verb:

a. I'm sorry, I missed your call earlier. Can you please _____ me _____ later?

b. The road was closed, so we had to _____ _____ and find another route.

c. I borrowed this book from the library, but I need to _____ it _____ tomorrow.

d. Jane lent me some money last week, and I promised to _____ her _____ by the end of this month.

e. The shirt I ordered online doesn't fit me well. I need to _____ it _____ and get a different size.

f. I regret buying this expensive dress. I think I'm going to _____ it _____ and get my money back.

2. Rewrite the following sentences using the phrasal verbs given in brackets:

a. Please return the book to the library. (take back)

b. Tom refunded the money he owed me. (pay back)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c. Sarah apologized and promised to reply to my message later. (call back)

d. The company shipped the wrong product, so I had to return it. (send back)

e. I changed my mind about buying the car, so I returned it to the dealership. (take back)

LIVEWORKSHEETS