idiom = a group of words that doesn't mean what the words say

When Lawn Boy says his grandmother might "have a screw loose" in chapter 1, he does not mean she's a robot and a piece is falling out of her. That's what the words say— the LITERAL meaning.

That GROUP of words, "have a screw loose," means "be crazy." That GROUP of words is an Idiom. That word GROUP has a special meaning. Use Context Clues to figure out what other idioms mean.

IDIOM	Literal Meaning	Idiom Meaning
have a screw loose	a metal piece is falling out	be crazy
9 bricks shy of a full load	missing some bricks wear and tear	tore something you wore
just like that	the same
