Listen the next video and select the correct answer.

1. What is the first step in starting a community action project?

A) Finding sponsors

B) Setting a budget

C) Identifying a community issue

D) Designing promotional materials

2. What does the video suggest as an effective way to identify community needs?

A) Conducting surveys and interviews

B) Raising funds

C) Creating a project logo

D) Contacting local politicians

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. What is a key benefit of involving community members in project planning?

A) It reduces the need for funding.

B) It ensures quick project completion.

C) It increases project visibility.

D) It results in better project outcomes.

4. What is a common challenge when implementing a community action project?

A) Lack of community interest

B) Excessive project budget

C) Overwhelming government support

D) Overcommunication with stakeholders

5. What does the video recommend for sustaining a community action project's impact?

A) Ignoring feedback from participants

B) Avoiding collaboration with other organizations

C) Continuously evaluating and adapting the project

D) Keeping project details secretive

True or False Questions

a) Starting a community action project requires identifying a relevant community issue.

True / False

b) Raising funds is the only way to understand the needs of the community.

True / False

c) Involving community members in project planning leads to more successful outcomes.

True / False

d) Challenges are not a normal part of community action projects.

True / False

e) To sustain the impact of a project, continuous evaluation and adaptation are important.

True / False

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS