Uses of Adverbs: So & Neither

We use So + auxiliary + pronoun to agree with positive statements.	A: I really love travelling B: Great! So do I.
We use Neither + auxiliary+ pronoun to agree with negative statements.	A: I don't go out much. B: What a coincidence! Neither do I.
We use a positive auxiliary to disagree with a negative sentence.	A: I don't like cycling. B: Oh, I do.
We use a negative auxiliary to disagree with an affirmative sentence.	A: I'm a vegetarian. B: Oh, I'm not.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 1. Thick the correct answer.

1. I like eating pizza.
a. So do I.
b. Neither do I.

2. He doesn't like coke.
a. So do I.
b. Neither do I.

3. My grandma hates rock
a. – My grandpa does.
b. - So does my grandpa.

4. Mona would like to be a doctor.
a. So would I.
b. Neither would I.

5. I'm not going to pass the test.
a. Neither am I
b. I do too.

6. Kate isn't Italian.
a. So do I
b. Neither am I.

Exercise 2. Match the two columns

1. I have never played football. _____
2. He is not a good singer. _____
3. Liz loves chocolate cake. _____.
4. Helen didn't go to the club. _____
5. Bob hates Reggaetón. _____
6. Mary is on a diet. _____

So do I
Neither did Robert.
Neither have I
So is Laura.
Neither am I
So does Alice

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Exercise 3. Match the two parts of the sentences.

1. He didn't have a good time,	A. So does my family.
2. I'll stay away for two weeks,	B. Neither do I.
3. My friends often go abroad,	C. So will I.
4. Sasha spent her time sunbathing,	D. Neither did I.
5. I don't have lots of friends,	E. Neither will I.
6. She won't give a party for her birthday,	F. So did Paul.

LIVEWORKSHEETS