James and Sally held as they walked together through the crowded stores of Newberry Mall. It was a cold winter day outside and even though the wasn't bathing in riches, they thought it might be fun to "window" shop, James led his girlfriend into an electronics store. He smiled when he there a huge collection of wide-screen TV's.

"Just this!" he said aloud. "This is the right size for our family room! We could invite all of our friends over, put on some DVDS, and serve some drinks and appetizers..." He laughed. Sally laughed with him and added, "We could have an Indiana Jones marathon."

The salesperson asked them if his assistance was needed.

"Nah, we're just " James explained.

"Ok. Let me know if you have any questions."

The jewelry store was next. Sally went directly for the emeralds. They were her favourite! Without warning, she caught James by his sleeve and pointed to a sparkling emerald ring on either side. "Look at how gorgeous it is," she said in an excited whisper. "And it's just my size!"

Sally asked the jeweler if she could try it .

She was right. It fit her .
