A	That was an awful weekend!
B
A
B
A
B

A	Would you mind if I asked you something?
B
A
B
A
B

A	I heard some great news today!
B
A
B
A
B

A	I've had a terrible week.
B
A
B
A
B

Oh, poor you. I hope you got it fixed.
I know. They're staying in a palace with a wonderful view of the sea.
You couldn't lend me €100, could you?
He missed some lessons and had an argument with a teacher!
My sister is at university and is homesick so I said I'd visit her. I need to buy a ticket.
Why? What happened?
Terrible? How come?
Oh, how awful! How did you find out?
Yes. And on top of that, our car broke down on the way.
Again? What's happened this time?
What about? Is it important?
Oh, really? What was it?
My son's in trouble again at school.
I went to see my brother. He's lost his job and his daughter failed her exams!
Wow. How romantic!
What a disaster! Both at the same time!
That's nice of you. A hundred, did you say? Here you are.
A palace? That sounds amazing!
A hundred? How come?
My grandparents are going to France for their 50th wedding anniversary.

LIVEWORKSHEETS