BOOK 3.4
FACIAL EXPRESSIONS

SADNESS + HEAT

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Match up!

SADNESS	HEAT

*Her face was etched with sorrow.	*His T-shirt was soaked in sweat	Tears threatened to jump out of her eyes	*She fanned herself in an exaggerated manner.
They glistened under the glare of the fluorescent light.	She turned on the waterworks, crying a river.	His face was tear-stained	The child started to bawl, sounding like a siren
Beads of perspiration dotted my forehead*		He dabbed his sweaty forehead with a tissue paper.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

fanned	etched
soaked	dabbed
waterworks

1. Aria _____ her sweaty forehead with her handkerchief.

2. Unable to stand the excruciating heat, Arnold _____ himself with his hands in an exaggerated fashion.

3. Ursula was still hurting from losing her mother. Her face was _____ in sorrow.

4. Kira threatens to turn on the _____ every time things don't go her way.

5. The sun was so hot that his T-shirt was _____ in perspiration.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

bawl	threatened
glistened	tear-stained perspiration

6. Her eyes welled up and tears _____ to jump out of it.

7. They _____ under the glare of the fluorescent light.

8. The boy started to _____ as loud as a siren the moment his ice cream cone hit the floor.

9. Beads of _____ dotted her forehead under the incinerating sun.

10. It was obvious from her _____ face that she had been crying for several hours.

Did you get $10 WB? I sure did!

LIVEWORKSHEETS