Transform the following sentences to passive. Use passive form, causative or impersonal.

1.They are making dinner for tonight's party.
-

2.People think Martha's accident was an incredible tragedy.
-

3.They are going to paint her room in the following weeks.
-

4.Did the dog eat all his food yesterday?
-

5.They believe that the movie is the worst in the market right now.
-

6.Will she buy her a present for her birthday?
-

7.The police finished with the road accident at the end of last night.
-

8.Have you done all your homework yet?
-

9.They had fixed his car before the business trip.
-

10.Where does your sister usually buy all those sweets?
-

11.Scientist expect the world will be worse in fifty years time.
-

12.Was Mari Carmen reading a book before class?
-

13.Martha is studying for her final exams at the moment.
-

14.The doctor could save her from death.
-

LIVEWORKSHEETS

15.They thought Marcos had gone to the cinema instead of going to the school.
-

16.They could cut my hair before the wedding in a record time!
-

17.Martín must wear a uniform every day at his school.
-

18.Is she going to drink beer at the party?
-

19.They know she has made a terrible mistake this morning in class.
-

20.They had to configure our computer to use it for tomorrow's exam.
-

21.Will everyone have bought the new Iphone by the time the year finishes?
-

22.They are causing me a really bad headache.
-

23.They were decorating his room all yesterday's afternoon.
-

24.Have your friends sent a letter to your sister on her birthday?
-

25.We have considered your friend is welcome to our group.
-

26.The firefighters couldn't save the poor cat on time in yesterday's fire.
-

27.Are you playing with your computer games again?
-

28.They haven't built our uncle's house yet.
-

29.People don't believe tomorrow will be sunny again.
-

LIVEWORKSHEETS