1. His [ambition / novice / portrait / manner] from the age of seven was to be a pilot, and now he is one.
2. Her voice is very [widespread / rife / following / distinctive] – she sings like no one else.
3. The actor had [awarded / advanced / caused / implied] that he would retire after that film, but in fact he made two more.
4. We [imply / stash / infer / reinvent] from your letter that you will not be visiting London this year.
5. She's only a [novice / amateur / pioneering / rare] climber at the moment, but she'll soon improve.
6. His technological achievements were [pioneering / rife / widespread / openly] in the pre-digital age.
7. He was famous for making only one [stuck / genre / gene / genius] of film – horror movies.
8. The presidential candidate [caused / embodied / profound / reinvented] everything that was wrong with society – greed, corruption and a thirst for fame.
9. No one found his [detrimental / profound / just / vulgar] jokes to be the least bit funny.
10. The students was asked to type and print his essay as his handwriting was totally [illiterate / illegal / illegible / vulgar].
11. You should behave in a [reverent / detrimental / poor / genre] manner when you meet old war heroes.
12. Sadly, his musical fame was [significant / exhausted / stuck / detrimental] to his career as an actor, because nobody took his acting seriously.
13. Elvis Presley made a huge [proficient / stage / contribution / livelihood] to the world of rock n' roll.
14. Everyone thought it was [poor / just / fast / stuck] that the man was sent to prison for his crime.
15. I'm sorry I was [short / stuck / poor / value] with you last night. I was very tired.

LIVEWORKSHEETS