Phew! What an awful day today! I woke up with a bad tooth, so Mum [1] made an appointment with the dentist for the afternoon. I never have time for breakfast so I [2]_____ a quick cup of coffee – and then went to school. But I forgot my homework! I always [3]_____ my homework in the afternoon (so I can watch TV in the evening), but I forgot to put it in my bag. My teacher was angry, and I had to [4]_____ some extra work during the break, as punishment! Before lunch we [5]_____ a Maths test. It was really hard. I [6]_____ my best, but I know I [7]_____ lots of mistakes. I studied all last week for that test, but it [8]_____ no difference. After school I [9]_____ the shopping with Mum, and then I went to the dentist. In the evening I tried to [10]_____ a cake for my friend's birthday. But I [11]_____ a terrible mess, and then of course I had to [12]_____ the washing-up. Now I'm really tired!

Tomorrow is a holiday: HOORAY! I'm going to sleep late and have a really lazy day.
