Weather and Climate Sort – Place the picture below the name first and the description at the bottom.

Barometer	Rain Gauge	Anemometer	Thermometer	Wind Sock	Wind Vane

This tool will measure how fast the air is moving.	This tool measures the air pressure around us.	This tool measures how hot or how cold the air around us is.	This measuring tool can help meteorologist record the amount of rainfall per rainstorm.	This tool will point in the direction the wind is blowing.	This tool is used to measure the relative wind speed and indicates the wind direction.