Dear. Susan

Hello Susan. How are you? I hope you are great, I am writing to tell you that I am in Italy now; It is a beautiful and small city I really like it but I miss London. My mother and my father are busy because they are working all the time, so for me is impossible to know the city by my own. I am with my sister but she is all the time in the computer chatting to her boyfriend; it is interesting to her looking at the screen all the time. Here in Italy the weather is sunny and warm, next to my house there is a girl her name is Joana, we talk everyday but is not the same as if you were here… Joana has a brother his name is John but he is a child he is 7 years old, sometimes we play soccer in the park. My mother is tired all the time because of her job and my father never talks to anyone. I am at school here; I meet some interesting people (Sarah, Claudio and Dimitri) they are my friends there. There is a party next Monday and we are planning to go. So I have to go now, I write you next week see you and have a nice day….

Regards …. Peter….
