
Here are some phrases and idioms that might help you describe the relationships in the photos. Fill in the gaps in the sentences below with a suitable phrase or idiom.

My flesh and blood - on the same wavelength - a fair-weather friend the apple of his eye - to go with the flow - like father, like son get on with - to build bridges - birds of a feather - are thick as thieves

1. Sarah and I have been friends for ages, so we_____ each other really well.

2. There were five of us in the group, but he definitely preferred Emily. She was_____.

3. My father was a talented goalkeeper that everyone admired. I wish I were as good as he was. I wish people would say: "_____".

4. Only bands that share the same ideas and values, in other words are_____, could exist for decades.

5. Our project aims_____ between different generations: the youth and the elderly.

6. I must admit there is a mutual understanding between my daughters and me. And this can be easily explained: they are_____.

7. You are a very friendly family. My siblings and I_____ if something goes wrong.

8. I was a new member of the team. Neither did I know the people nor the rules, so I decided_____.

9. I was shocked when I realised John wouldn't help me. It became clear he is_____.

10. My friend and I are_____ . We both like watching horror films and playing video games.

LIVEWORKSHEETS