Fill in the preposition where necessary.

1. A couple of people objected … the proposal, but the vast majority approved of it.
2. A narrow path led … their cottage.
3. A new campaign is aimed at discouraging children … watching too much television.
4. Anna reminds me … her mother.
5. Church leaders have appealed … the government to halt the war.
6. Fierce winds prevented the race … taking place.
7. He succeeded … building the business into one of the leaders in its field.
8. He was able to provide the police … some valuable information.
9. Her responsibilities consist … answering the phone and greeting visitors.
10. How long do you spend … your homework?
11. How much do you charge … hiring out a bicycle for a week?
12. I congratulated Jill … winning the award.
13. I don't always approve … his methods, but he certainly gets excellent results.
14. I have always regretted … not having studied harder at school.
15. I waited … her outside while she went in to see the doctor.
16. Icy conditions resulted … two roads being closed.
17. In her autobiography she occasionally refers … her unhappy childhood.
18. It's important to focus … your strengths and to minimize your weaknesses.
19. Many adults follow … the fashion in clothes as much as their children do.
20. She applied … admission to law school.
21. She's used to dealing … difficult customers.
22. The company is concentrating its resources … developing new products.
23. The emergency services are working at full stretch today to cope … the accident.
24. The police entered … the building through the side door.
25. The success of this project relies … everyone making an effort.
26. There are hundreds of nuclear missiles aimed … the main cities.
27. Tourism contributes substantially … the local economy.
28. We have to face … facts here - we simply don't have enough money.
29. You can depend … Jack - he's the most reliable man I know.
30. You should ask your accountant … some financial advice.
31. You're faced … a very difficult choice there.

LIVEWORKSHEETS