Page 32, Listening Comprehension

A: We're talking today with Lucille, who comes from a family of three kids. And . . . Lucille, I hear you have a younger brother . . .

B: Right. Five years younger.

A: And a sister.

B: That's right.

A: And you and your sister are twins. Is that right?

B: Right. She was born eight minutes before me. I was the little one.

A: Well, tell us a little bit about your sister. What's her name, by the way?

B: Her name's Laura.

A: Laura! So, Lucille. Do you look alike?

B: We do, actually. A lot of people can't tell us apart.

A: Really.

B: But I wear glasses all the time. She only wears them for reading.

A: I see. Some people say twins like the same things. Is that true for you two?

B: Well, we both love Mexican food. We always have the same thing when we go to restaurants. And let's see . . . we like the same kinds of movies.

A: Anything else?

B: Well, this is kind of funny. Sometimes we each buy almost the same clothes. Not because we want to. It just happens by accident. I go to visit her, and she's wearing the same shirt I am. It's always a surprise.

A: So how are you different from each other?

B: Well, Laura's a great dancer. And me, I can't dance at all.

A: Anything else?

B: Let's see . . . her favorite color is green, mine's blue . . . She loves football and I love baseball . . . I could go on and on.

A: Well, how about musical tastes?

B: Oh yeah. I love classical music. But she really prefers pop. I actually play the piano, but she doesn't play any musical instrument. I'd say she's really more of a dancer than a musical person.

A: And how about your own marriages and families? Are they similar in any way?

B: Well, we both have two kids. I've got a boy and a girl. She's got two boys. But our husbands are completely different . . . Not at all alike.

A: Really! Well, thank you, Lucille Kennedy, for talking with us today about you and your twin sister.

B: Thank you. That was fun!
