Name _____ Date _____

Slavery in the North & South Quiz 3

1. Where did the abolitionist movement begin?
   a. Columbia c. New York
   b. Philadelphia d. Boston

2. Someone who worked to end slavery was called an _____.
   a. abolitionist c. tariff
   b. planter d. broadside

3. People who escaped slavery were known as _____.
   a. conductors c. abolitionists
   b. stationmasters d. fugitives

4. Who was one of the most well-known conductors on the Underground Railroad?
   a. Harriet Tubman c. Sojourner Truth
   b. Frederick Douglass d. Sarah Grimke

5. _____ led fugitives and gave them directions to safe stations on the Underground Railroad.
   a. Abolitionists c. Fugitives
   b. Depots d. Conductors

6. What was the name of the anti-slavery newspaper that William Garrison published?
   a. The North Star c. The Broadside
   b. The Liberator d. The Abolitionist

7. Who started the New England Anti-Slavery Society?
   a. Frederick Douglass c. Sarah Grimke
   b. Sojourner Truth d. William Garrison

8. _____ was a formerly enslaved person who wrote a book and started an abolitionist newspaper.
   a. Sojourner Truth c. Harriet Tubman
   b. Abraham Lincoln d. Frederick Douglass

9. Who was a former slave who was famous for her speeches against slavery, as well as her stance on women's rights?
   a. Sojourner Truth c. Harriet Tubman
   b. Grimke Sisters d. Frederick Douglass

10. Who was born to a rich planter family in SC, but went against her family's beliefs to become an abolitionist?
   a. Sojourner Truth c. Harriet Tubman
   b. Grimke Sisters d. Frederick Douglass

LIVEWORKSHEETS